

Solanus Casey Center

a Capuchin Franciscan Ministry

We are traveling to the Solanus Casey Center in Detroit today. The Center is a ministry of the Capuchin Franciscan Friars of the Province of Saint Joseph, located within the Roman Catholic Archdiocese. Inspired by the life and example of Blessed Solanus Casey, this center strives to be a place of pilgrimage, healing, reconciliation and peace. Our day begins with a tour of the facilities and Lenten mass. A soup & sandwich lunch at the church will follow. You will then have time in the gift shop & bakery before the Healing Blessing. Lunch is included in the trip cost. Travel is by Deluxe Motor Coach.
